All of Trading Summarized in One Sentence:

"Always and Only Trade _____ in the Direction of the _____ _____ of the Market.

Trading is not about having "certainty," but about creating a _____ _____ that puts the odds in YOUR favor.

No ONE Tool (indicator, candlestick pattern, moving average etc.) creates a probability scenario.

To create a probability scenario, we use 5 _____ energies of _____ _____, and when they align (all bullish/bearish) at the same time, that puts the odds on your side.

Those 5 energies are:

1. The market direction (_____)

2. That is strong (_____)
3. At the right time (_____ _____)
4. Bouncing off _____/_____
5. Confirmed by the bigger scale (_____)

To effectively use a good cycle indicator we must do 2 things:

Use the right _____and _____.

Be shown the trade trigger patterns.

Stochastic settings MUST BE MODIFIED to turn it into a Timing Indicator:

If your charting platform has "Stochastic Full," use that.

If your charting platform doesn't have "Stochastic Full," then use "Stochastic Slow".

- Period %D: _____
- Period %K: _____
- Smooth: _____
- Lower horizontal line: _____
- Upper horizontal line: _____

HOW TO TRADE IT:

Our trade entry triggers occur when we get a "_____ - _____" indicator pattern.

When %K hits 0, that is the most _____ momentum indication that the indicator is mathematically allowed to plot on the chart.

When %K hits 100, that is the most _____ momentum indication that the indicator is mathematically allowed to plot on the chart.

SUMMARY OF THE TRADING METHOD:

The Alignment Of The UNCORRELATED Energies Puts The Odds On Your Side:

1. Direction (_____).

2. That Is Strong (_____).

3. At the Right Time (_____).

4. Bouncing Off Important Level (_____)

5. All Confirmed By the Bigger Scale
   (_____)

Because the method is based on "Energies" of money flow, it works on all _____ and it works for all _____ _____.

It's a _____ and objective scoring of the 5 _____.
